Theme	Be reconciled and return to the Lord by means of prayer, fasting, and deeds of loving service.	Moses recounts great events of salvation history which find their fulfillment in Jesus Christ. We confess Him to be Lord, for God raised Him from the dead. He is ever faithful, resisting temptation to forsake His Father's mission, trusting in God's love.	Abram's faith is sealed with a covenant initiated by God, our light and our salvation. The transfiguration of Jesus prefigures the transformation in glory to which we are called by our sharing in the paschal mystery - the dying and rising of Jesus.

Theme	From the burning bush, Moses is called by God to lead His people out of slavery into freedom. The parable of the fig tree speaks, on the one hand, of God's patience, but, on the other, of the urgency of the call to conversion. Like the Hebrews of old, we too have failed to heed God's call, thinking ourselves to be self-righteous.	Having arrived in the promised land, the Hebrews celebrated their deliverance from affliction and distress in the Passover. Christ, our passover, has entrusted to us the message of reconciliation: let us forgive one another and celebrate the unconditional and abundant love of God our Father.	To the exiles in Babylon, Isaiah foretells a new exodus, when the Lord will lead His people from captivity to freedom. True freedom is rooted in the person of Jesus, not in observance of the Law. It is He who challenges us to examine our own hearts before self-righteously judging others.
